

AWARDS

SECTION 2
ACSA POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Section 2 — Awards

Policies:

2.1 Awards for Significant Contributions to Education

ACSA recognizes that awards are an effective means for improving the educational process and for recognizing members' contribution to ACSA and education in their various roles as leaders. ACSA should make awards to individuals who have made significant contributions to education.

2.2 Regions are Encouraged to Recognize Contributions to Education

Regions are encouraged to recognize contributions to education made by individuals within their regions.

Procedures:

2.3 Marcus Foster Memorial Award

An annual award will be given in memory of Dr. Marcus Foster. The description and process for granting the award follows:

2.3.1 The Award

ACSA has established an annual award in the most respected memory of Dr. Marcus Foster, Oakland school superintendent. The purpose of the award is to cause the education profession and citizens of California to remember the ideals by which Marcus Foster gave outstanding leadership to the Oakland Unified School District.

2.3.2 The Recipient

The Marcus Foster Memorial Award shall be granted each year to an administrator who has been selected as the person who most personifies the ideals of Marcus Foster. The honoree shall receive a scholarship for five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) to be awarded to a high school senior of his/her choice in a high school in either the district in which the administrator works or lives.

2.3.2.1 Current ACSA employees and ACSA state board members are not eligible to receive this award.

2.3.3 The Criteria

The Marcus Foster Memorial Award shall be awarded to the administrator who has demonstrated the qualities of Marcus Foster's leadership style. The person so honored shall have demonstrated that he/she is:

2.3.3.1 An administrator who is a skilled manager of change.

2.3.3.2 An administrator whose management style involves many sectors of the community in addition to broad professional involvement.

Section 2 — Awards

- 2.3.3.3 An administrator who is willing to take risks to improve educational opportunities.
- 2.3.3.4 An administrator who is creative, who is willing to try new ideas and he/she reaches out to children.
- 2.3.3.5 An administrator who speaks out in his/her community on issues that have an impact on children.
- 2.3.3.6 An administrator who respects all people, especially children, as human beings, and who protects the rights of all persons to have full citizenship.

2.3.4 Process

Annually the Awards Committee shall notify the membership that nominations for the Marcus Foster Memorial Award for Administrator Excellence are being accepted.

- 2.3.4.1 All nominations, including those from the Awards Committee, must be in writing on the appropriate form available from State ACSA.
- 2.3.4.2 Nominations must be postmarked by the deadline set by the Awards Committee.
- 2.3.4.3 Recommendations for the award may be made by any member of ACSA, charter groups, committees or regions.
- 2.3.4.4 The Awards Committee shall actively seek and consider all recommendations and recommend to the board of directors the name of the administrator who should receive this recognition.
- 2.3.4.5 The final decision shall be made by the board of directors.

2.3.5 Presentation

The award, when given, shall be presented to the recipient at ACSA's Leadership Summit by the state president or his/her designee.

(Revised: February 2014 Board of Directors)

2.4 Ferd. J. Kiesel Distinguished Service Award

A Ferd. J. Kiesel Distinguished Service Award will be given annually to a recipient that meets the criteria. When the committee feels that no nominee has significantly served education the award may not be given.

Section 2 — Awards

2.4.1 The Award

The Ferd. J. Kiesel Distinguished Service Award is the most significant award that ACSA may present to an individual. Its specific design or pattern should be unique and distinctly different from any other award presented by the association or any region.

One or more award may be made annually and in any given year — none may be given. This award shall not preclude or replace the awarding of other recognitions by ACSA, its regions or charters, either to members or non-members.

2.4.2 The Recipient

The recipient of a Ferd. J. Kiesel Distinguished Service Award may be anyone who has made a contribution to public education: an administrator, teacher, legislator, lay person, etc.

2.4.2.1 Current ACSA employees and ACSA state board members are not eligible to receive this award.

2.4.3 The Criteria

The criteria to be used in making a selection shall include but not be limited to the following:

2.4.3.1 The person's contribution shall have had significant impact on public education over a wide geographical area, state or national.

2.4.3.2 The person's contributions shall have had impact on significant segments of public education.

2.4.3.3 Although it may not be as important as the contribution itself, the time a person has been involved with education shall be considered.

2.4.4 Process

Annually, the Awards Committee shall publicize the award, purpose, criteria and process in EDCAL or other appropriate publications. In addition, letters will be sent to all region presidents and state committee chairs with appropriate information, soliciting nominations.

All nominations, including those of the Awards Committee, must be in writing on the appropriate form available from state ACSA.

2.4.5 Presentation

The award, when given, shall be presented to the recipient(s) at ACSA's Leadership Summit by the state president or his/her designee.

Section 2 — Awards

(Revised: February 2014 Board of Directors)

2.5 ACSA Service Award

The ACSA Service Award will be presented to all outgoing members of state committees, with the exception of the chair. This award will also be presented to region officers and anyone determined by the ACSA president. Likely candidates would be those serving on special ad hoc committees, or those performing special services for the association.

2.6 Recognition: Region Presidents, State Committee Chairs & Board of Directors

ACSA will recognize region presidents, state committee chairs and members of the board of directors, who have completed their term of service.

2.7 Administrator of the Year Awards

- 2.7.3.4 The region board of directors shall forward to ACSA's Awards Committee the region's nominee for each of the categories listed above. The region may elect not to offer a nomination if in its discretion insufficient nominations were received or nominees did not satisfy the judging criteria.

Section 2 — Awards

2.7.4 Selection Process

The Awards Committee shall evaluate all region nominations and recommend to ACSA's state board of directors an award recipient for each category. A recommendation may be withheld in a category if in the discretion of the committee insufficient nominations were received or if nominees did not satisfy the judging criteria. The final selection of award recipients shall be made by ACSA's board of directors.

2.7.5 Presentation

Recipients will be honored in ACSA publications and at the Leadership Summit.

(Revised: February 2014 Board of Directors)

2.8 Partners in Educational Excellence Award

2.8.1 The Award

Partners in Educational Excellence awards shall be given annually to exemplary school-community partnership programs that promote effective educational performance, enhanced student achievement and strong community involvement in educational quality.

2.8.2 The Recipient

The award will be granted to the outstanding community partnership programs at a state and region level, and will recognize the individual leadership and contributions of the school administrators, educators and community or business leaders involved in the program.

2.8.2.1 Current ACSA employees and ACSA state board members are not eligible to receive this award.

2.8.3 The Criteria

The recipient of this award shall sponsor a program that consistently demonstrates:

2.8.3.1 Sustained, positive impact on student achievement and learning.

2.8.3.2 Effective collaboration between education and community leaders in the creation and implementation of the program.
