

IVÁN CARRILLO

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF POLICY & GOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

Iván Carrillo has worked in advocacy and policymaking since 2009. Iván entered the Legislature through the prestigious Assembly Fellows program. During his seven years in the Legislature, Iván secured funding, advanced policies, and created programs to support students and educators. Through his experience working in both Capitol and district legislative offices, Iván developed a unique and valuable perspective of intersecting grassroots advocacy and policymaking to create change.

Iván is an alumnus of UC Davis where he was the first community college transfer student and second Latino to be elected student body president. Iván is also active in the community, currently serving on the board of directors of the Chicano Latino Youth Leadership Project (CLYLP). He is a graduate of the University of California, Davis, where Iván received a degree in sociology and was the first community college transfer student to be elected student body president.
