

KIMBERLY JOHNSON

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Kimberly Johnson joined ACSA's Governmental Relations team in March 2025 as an Administrative Assistant. In her role, she assists with the department's legislative advocacy and policy work. Kimberly provides support for Senior Director, Iván Carrillo, as well as logistical and administrative support for the team's day-to-day operations. She also serves as the Staff Support for the Early Education Council.

Prior to joining ACSA, Kimberly worked at Lucas Public Affairs, where she was involved in several public affairs campaigns, with a focus on account administration, client management and strategic communications. She also brings experience from the California Department of Justice, where she assisted the legislative affairs team as a Student Assistant.

Kimberly holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from California State University, Sacramento.
